Drawn for The Bee by Sidney Smith Man Held on Charge of Stealing Watch

> S P Williams, stock buyer from Neola, la., was up almost all night Saturday loading stock at the stockyards. He was sleepy Sunday as he sat in his Ford in front of the Arcade hotel, 1215 Douglas street, while his comrade, Frank Oltman of Neola. went shopping. Williams dozed. When Oltman > returned by saw Robert Wagner, 35 Oshkosh Wos, on the running board of the car, he alleges, shaking Wilname and asking him if he was asleep. Williams merely grunted. Oltman roused him and asked him if he had been tobbed. Williams felt for his watch. It was gone.

Wagner fled. Oltman chased him. Wagner ran smack into the arms of Detectives Trapp and Munch who allege he threw the watch across the street as he saw them. Wagner was held on $1,000 bond for trial in district court on charges of larceny from the person.
